2 Escape Sonoma Home, Recaptured

SANTA ROSA, Feb. 13. — Trapped in a tree in a pasture several miles from the institution, two young fugitives from the Sonoma State Home about sixteen miles south of here, were recaptured today a few hours after they escaped.

The young men, Walter De Roia, 20, and Norris Esterga, 19, were inmates in Paxton Hall, a building used to house incorrigibles, institution attendants said.
